Callawassie Island Photography Club

Field Trip

Where:	Georgia Aquarium in Atlanta, Georgia. 225 Baker St, Atlanta, GA 30313-1809.
What:	We will have a unique opportunity to shoot pictures in this 10 million gallon playground containing the greatest variety of sea life from the world. This is one of the world's largest aquariums with everything from belugas, whale sharks, penguins, 3D film, etc. There is no greater place to witness and photograph marine life on land. As we get closer to November 14 please check for special programs and events https://www.georgiaaquarium.org/experience/visit/tickets/programs-events
When:	November 14, 2018 (Wednesday) Aquarium opens from 10am till 9pm
How:	On your own. Car pools will be an option. Plan for a 3.5 hours + drive. GPS and Parking Directions Use this address for a more direct route to Georgia Aquarium parking $12 per day: 357 Luckie Street, NW Atlanta, GA 30313 Map of area: https://www.georgiaaquarium.org/experience/visit/directions-parking.
How much:	Seniors rate is $28.95 + tax = $31.50 This will be charged to your CI account. Access to galleries, shows and exhibits. Photograph without restrictions. Some areas restricted from using flash. Equipment/bags, tripods, etc. permitted. Security – empty all bags.
Facilities:	Food court, etc.
Optional:	Visit adjoining World of Coca Cola museum at $16 admission.
Sign up and pay:	Due to "group" rules we have to commit by October 26, 2018 close of business. Please contact Bill Rusak 843 987 3003 or email rusak2@aol.com to confirm your participation.
CIPC Web site	Check out web site for info.